

SCHOLARSHIPS for the 2019 GOVERNOR'S LEADERSHIP FOUNDATION

The Leaders Institute thanks the following supporters for providing scholarships to assist more people to take part in the GLF program:

THE KEITH FULTON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Community Business Bureau (CBB) is a not-for-profit organisation with a mission to provide services and programs which build the capacity and capability of not-for-profit organisations. CBB is proud to show its commitment to leadership development in the community sector by offering two half scholarships for the Governor's Leadership Foundation to leaders in the sector.

RETURN TO WORK SA SCHOLARSHIP

Return to Work SA is responsible for providing work injury insurance and regulating the South Australian Return to Work scheme. It provides insurance that protects South Australian businesses and their workers in the event of a work injury. Designed to protect business owners from the full cost of work injuries, it provides financial support to cover worker wages, reasonable medical treatment and return to work services to people who have been injured at work. Return to Work SA is proud to show its commitment towards South Australia through offering a scholarship or two half scholarships to worthy candidates who would not otherwise be able to undertake the program.

DR PAUL COLLIER SCHOLARSHIP

Redarc is an award-winning SA company. Owner Anthony Kittel (FGLF09), supports two half scholarships in honour of Dr Paul Collier, a leader in the disability arts community, founder of the Dignity for Disability Party, quadriplegic and graduate of the 2009 GLF program, who passed away in early 2010. The scholarship supports participation in the GLF for leaders with a disability or a leader in an organisation that provides support for those with a disability.

JAMES & DIANA RAMSAY FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP

The James & Diana Ramsay Foundation was established in 2008 by the late Diana Ramsay AO. The aim of the foundation is to continue to foster excellence in the arts, youth at risk and medical research arenas. The Foundation generously supports two half full scholarships for leaders working in the arts, medicine or with youth at risk, within the not-for-profit sector.

THE PASTOR SIR DOUG NICHOLLS AND LADY GLADYS NICHOLLS SCHOLARSHIP

The Office for the Public Sector is the proud sponsors of the Pastor Sir Doug Nicholls and Lady Gladys Nicholls Scholarships, established in the name of the first (and only) Aboriginal Governor of South Australia, Pastor Sir Doug Nicholls and his wife Lady Gladys Nicholls in recognition of their significant leadership in a broad diversity of areas. Two full scholarships are available to support South Australian Government employees of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background and people who are living with a disability (ASO6 and above) to participate in the Governor's Leadership Foundation Program, building upon the contribution of Sir Doug Nicholls and Lady Gladys Nicholls towards equality and reconciliation.
